Introduction

The project progress report helps us to regularly monitor the progress of your running Eurostars project in a simple, useful and transparent way. It enables fast and efficient communication between project partners, national funding bodies and the Eureka Secretariat.

The content of your project progress report allows the Eureka Secretariat and national funding bodies to have a complete picture of all developments in your project. Participants must communicate the progress they made in the reporting period. For example, participants must include a brief description of the major results and achievements in the reporting period and information about the project's status.

In addition, participants must report deviations from the original project plan and other unforeseen changes during the implementation of the project in the reporting period. Your project progress report facilitates discussions between project partners, national funding bodies and the Eureka Secretariat on any issues so we can find solutions quickly.

All consortia participating in our Eurostars programme must complete project progress reports. Failure to submit a complete project progress report may result in your project's Eurostars label and public funding being withdrawn.

Each consortium must complete and submit a project progress report every six months, starting from the beginning of your project until your project is completed. The main partner in your consortium is responsible for filling in most information, but other partners must contribute to the report.

The project progress report is divided into two sections. The first section is about the whole consortium, visible for all partners, and must be completed by the main partner. The second section is for the individual project partners. The main partner can also complete the second section on behalf of another project partner.

Procedure

Your project progress report is available and must be submitted directly on our project platform.

On the website, you will see the following screen where you can click “Sign in with Eureka” and login by indicating your email address, then clicking on “Sign in”. A verification will be sent to your email address. Please check your spam and junk email folders carefully to retrieve the email. If the code has expired, please request a new one.

The diagram illustrates the login process on the Eureka Project Management Platform. It consists of three screenshots and explanatory text:

- Screenshot 1 (Main Page): Shows the Eureka logo and two options: "I don't have a Eureka Project Management Platform account" (with a link to "Competitions Listings") and "I want to create a new application" (with a link to "Competitions Listings"). A green button labeled "Sign in with Eureka" is at the bottom.
- Text: "Sign in to the platform by entering your email address. A verification code will be sent to your email address. Please check your spam and junk email folders carefully to retrieve the email." An arrow points from this text to the "Sign in with Eureka" button.
- Warning: A red exclamation mark is placed next to the text.
- Text: "If the code has expired, please request a new one." An arrow points from this text to the "Sign in" page.
- Screenshot 2 (Sign in): Shows a "Sign in" page with the Eureka logo, the text "Sign in to your account.", an "Email address" field (containing "name@host.com"), and a blue "Next" button.
- Screenshot 3 (Check your email): Shows a "Check your email" page with the Eureka logo, an envelope icon, the text "Enter the code that we sent to the email address *****. The code expires in 15 minutes.", a "Verification code" field (containing "Enter code"), a blue "Continue" button, and a "Back" button.

Once logged in, you can see your dashboard on the platform. Scroll down until you see your approved application under “Approved projects”:

The screenshot shows the "Approved projects" section of the dashboard. It contains a single entry:

The dates next to each report (e.g., 05-05-2021 – 06-11-2021) represents the covering period of the Project Progress Report, which is six months long. Participants are only allowed to click on the link for the Project Progress Report once the covering period has been reached. The consortium will have 4 weeks to fill in the relevant information.

A project progress report task will first appear as “To be completed”. You must fill in all sections and fields in your project progress report to submit it, but you can complete the sections in any order. It is also possible to save content in between and complete it later via the “Save and return” button. Please note that any section will only be considered as completed once you have clicked on the button “Mark as complete”.

Once every field and section have been filled in and marked as complete, you will be able to see the Submit button at the bottom of the main PPR page:

Project Progress Report 2 (PPR2)

Please note that a Project Progress Report (PPR) must be submitted by the consortium every 6 months from the beginning of the project. The main partner of the consortium is in charge of completing and submitting the report. In the Partner section, each partner will need to provide the information.

Part 2: Information about the partners

The main partner must generate this section for the other partners. He must then also assign it to each relevant partner. This means that this section will only be seen by the partners if the main partner has first created it in the report and assigned it to them. Each partner section can be either completed by the main partner or by the relevant assigned partner.

To create a partner section, the main partner should click on “Partner section” and then on “+ Add partner section”:

Partner section

This section must provide information related to each partner organisation. The main partner must add a section for each partner organisation which can be assigned to other partners. In this section, each partner will need to provide the information.

Test	Assigned to Doe Jessica	Complete
test bob	Assigned to Smith Bob	Complete

+ Add partner section

Please note that the main partner should add a section for each of the project partners participating in the project, including a section for the main partner itself<sup>3</sup>.

<sup>3</sup> If one of the partner sections is missing, the main partner will not be able to submit. Example: your consortium is composed of A, B and C. A is the main partner. In the PPR, partner A needs to create three sections: one for each partner (A, B and C). In case the main partner creates only two sections for partner B and C, the system will prevent the PPR to be submitted.

To assign a partner section to another, the main partner should click on the section between the “Name of the section” and “Remove”, highlighted here:
